Starting in 2010, 3 Sales weeks will be scheduled each year: Late winter, Spring/Summer, and Fall. The first 2010 sale week will be February 22-28. Further date information will be available on our website STARTING FEBRUARY 1: thekentuckynational.com (click on tack cottage tab at bottom of home page).

In addition to the 3 “Sale Weeks” during each year; buyers can also shop by special appointment if they are searching for a particular item that we have in our selection.

Consignments can be dropped off by appointment or during the sale weeks. The cottage has central heat and air; your clothes and tack will not be exposed to any temperature extremes or be subject to dampness. The cottage has a designated dressing room for “try ons”. You may leave your items at the cottage from sale to sale if they do not sell.

We cannot accept: Helmets, outdated or out of style clothes, or small items. All tack and clothes must be in sterling condition and CLEAN. All clothes should be on hangers. If you consign a western saddle YOU MUST PROVIDE A SADDLE STAND .

Consignors set the price. Consignors pay $20 annual fee, non-refundable to help cover tagging, website and advertising expenses. THE SALES WILL BE WELL PROMOTED ACROSS ALL DISCIPLINES. This fee is due when items are consigned; and will NOT BE REFUNDED in the event items remain unsold. When items are sold and all sales funds collected; the Cottage will receive the following sales commission : 20% on items sold under $200 / 15% on items sold for $200 or more
